4. When was the use of private bamos permitted?
5. What must one do with consecrated animals that develop a blemish?
6. In what ways does a consecrated animal that develops a blemish retain a degree of kedusha (holiness) even after it has been redeemed?
7. Why was the tribe of Yehuda not permitted to conquer Jerusalem?
8. Why were the Jewish People allowed to witness the extermination of the Canaanites?
9. What forms of idol worship are punishable by death?
10. A person performs miraculous deeds in the name of Hashem, and then states that the laws of the Torah have been revised. What is done to this person?

17. Why is matzah called "the bread of affliction"?
18. What mitzvah recalls the Exodus from Egypt?
19. Which four individuals are under Hashem's "special protection"?

In the beginning of Parshas Re'eh, Hashem tells the Jewish People, "See, I am placing before you a blessing and a curse. The blessing, asher (that) you guard the mitzvos... and a curse im (if) you do not guard the mitzvos..." (11:26-28).

Why did the Torah change its mode of expression from "that" to "if"?

I Did Not Know That!

When King Ptolmy commanded the elders to translate the Torah into Greek, Hashem put into their hearts to alter the translation. One example — the word arneves (rabbit) was changed to tze'iras hareglaim (short legged creature). King Ptolmy's wife was named Arneves, and it wasn't deemed wise to list the king's wife as one of the non-kosher animals.

Bonus

A:

The Torah teaches that Hashem is ready to grant the blessing immediately. He requires only that the people fulfill their "part of the deal" by upholding the Torah. The curse, on the other hand, He is not as ready to give. Only if the Jewish People violate the Torah will Hashem then "be forced" to activate the curse.
