“Remove its intestines and throw them next to the altar....”

Birds eat food that they scavenge. Therefore, their intestines are tainted with ‘theft’ and unfit to offer upon the altar. Animals, however, eat food provided by their owners. Therefore, their intestines are fit for the altar (1:16 and Rashi).

The above implies that dependence on humans is desirable. How does this fit with the lesson of Noah’s dove? Noah’s dove returned to the ark with a bitter olive leaf in its mouth, as if to say: “Bitter food provided by Hashem is better than sweet food provided by humans. (See Rashi, Bereshis 8:11)”

I Did Not Know That!

‘Elokim’ — the name of Hashem which denotes strict justice — is never used in reference to the offerings.

Answers to this Week’s Questions

All references are to the verses and Rashi’s commentary, unless otherwise stated

1. 1:2 - Because he owned everything.
2. 1:4 - a) Neglecting a positive command & b) Violating a negative command which is rectified by a positive command.

4. 1:7 - It descended from heaven.
5. 1:15 - Slaughtering a bird offering from the back of the neck using a fingernail.
6. 1:16 - An animal’s food is provided by its owner, so its innards are ‘kosher.’ Birds, however, eat food that they scavenge, so their innards are tainted with ‘theft.’
7. 1:17 - A person who offers a bird is probably too poor to afford an animal. Therefore, the Torah wants his offering to look nice, and it looks better with feathers.
8. 2:1 - Usually, it is a poor person who brings a flour offering. Therefore, Hashem regards it as if he had offered his ‘nafesh’ (soul).
9. 2:1 - Five.
10. 2:1 - The kometz (fistful).
11. 2:2 - From the taking of the kometz and onwards.

18. 5:14 - a. One who refrains from giving evidence when adjured by oath; b. One who enters the Beis HaMikdash or eats Kodesh food after unknowingly contracting “tuma” (uncleanliness) by touching certain “tamei” (unclean) things; c. One who unknowingly violates his oath.
19. 5:11 - Levona and oil.
20. 5:17 - One who is in doubt whether he transgressed a negative commandment whose intentional violation carries the penalty of kares (excision).

Independent sustenance is good only if it is earned honestly. (The olive leaf in the mouth of Noah’s dove was from an ownerless tree, since all humanity had been destroyed and Noah had not yet claimed ownership.) Charity, however, is preferably to dishonest ‘independence.’
