Sherlox Holmes

“The new butler from the Shirewood estate disappeared along with thousands in cash and jewels,” said Watstein.

“Well,” said world famous detective Sherlox Holmes, “I imagine we’ll find him in Grampa Hastings’ apartment.”

“Grampa Hastings? The sickly man who took an apartment in Shirewood last year, who lies in bed all day with his curtains drawn?”

“Ever had a close look at him?”

“His doting spinster sister never lets anyone too near.”

“Curious how his room is always so dimly lit, isn’t it?” said Sherlox.

“Are you suggesting that he and the missing butler are ...”

“One and the same. It’s remarkable what dim light can reveal.”

“Speaking of dim light,” said Watstein, “Can you explain this text: ‘There was pitch darkness in all the Land of Egypt for three days; A person couldn’t see his brother, and a person couldn’t stand from his place for three days...’” (Shemos 10:22-3).

“For the first three days the Egyptians couldn’t see, and for the next three days they couldn’t even move. Miraculous, but is it harder to understand than the other plagues?” asked Sherlox.

“My question exactly!” said Watstein. “Why, then, does Rashi comment? Rashi says: Why did G-d bring darkness on the Egyptians? Because among the Jews there were some wicked ones; they died during the three days of darkness so the Egyptians wouldn’t see their downfall. Also so that the Jews could search for the Egyptians’ precious vessels.”

“Good reasons for darkness” said Sherlox.

“But Rashi doesn’t spell out the reason for the other plagues. Why does he need to explain the reason for this plague?”

“It’s remarkable what dim light can reveal,” said Sherlox.
I Did Not Know That!

“At approximately midnight I go out amidst Egypt, and every first born will die...” (11:14)

Hashem’s ‘clock’ is set to Jerusalem. The plague of the first-born took place at exactly midnight, Jerusalem time. But because Egypt is west of Jerusalem, midnight there occurs later. When Moshe said the plague would be at ‘approximately midnight,’ he was referring to local, Egyptian time.
