Parshas Beshalach 5758

Why is mom singing, dad?

She's very happy about the flowers I bought for her birthday.

Just like the Jews at the Red Sea, after they saw how Hashem split the sea and saved them from the Egyptians, they were so happy they had to sing!

You mean she's singing because of a bunch of flowers?

That's right, Yossi!

But Dad, they saw big miracles at the sea, so of course they felt like singing.

All mom got was some flowers?

Well, Yossi! It's actually a miracle that I remembered mom's birthday.
