Purim 5758

Dad, we don’t have a poor person to invite to our Purim meal tomorrow! You’re right, Yossi, let’s try the orphanage.

I’m afraid you’re a bit late, Benny. The mailman just delivered money from the shul and 300 hamantaschen! So the boys are all set to have their own meal right here.

That’s a very sweet offer, Yossi, but Benny the mailman just brought me enough food to feed myself and some cousins.

Any other time I’d jump at the invite, Yossi, but...

I know, Benny the mailman was here.

Benny took away all the poor people in town! Look, Yossi, here comes Benny now.

Benny, there’s not one poor person left in town!!

I got so carried away, I forgot to leave something for myself!
